a state of disrepair.
He further reported that though the Inam was resumed and full assessment levied on the lands from the Raiyats who cultivated the same, the Khata was still in the name of the temple. Upon the Amildar reporting that the villagers had ~~spent~~ spent a large sum (nearly Rs 600) in thoroughly repairing the temple and that Puja was being regularly performed, the Dy Comm.r recommended that the Govt. might ~~may~~ be pleased to sanction the restoration of the resumed inams, ~~as~~ as especially the cultivators of the lands in question had also also agreed to give up the same to the temple in case they were restored to it.

= Under the foregoing circumstances, the Dy Secretary recommended that the Inam tenure of the lands ~~may~~ be restored in favor of the temple Thereupon the Dewan directed that as Saligamè was so near Hassan, the Dy Comm^r should see the temple & repeat his recommendation if he was satisfied with the work done & the manner in which Puja was performed & the arrangements made for carrying it out permanently. Enquiry as above having been made the Dy Commr. in his letter of the 2nd July 03 cited above, reports that the Treasury Assistant Commr. who conducted the Jamabundi of the Hassan Taluk, inspected the temple and was satisfied with the repairs executed & that a few sundry repairs which were not executed owing to the recent evacuation of the village are promised to be done immediately. The Dy Commr. repeats the recommendation for the restoration of the resumed Inam lands to the temple.
